Happy Easter,
Well, we made it, Spring is here! I'm sure we'll still have some cold days and maybe some snow, but the worst of Winter should be past! I know I'm looking forward to warm weather and light jackets.

This month is also the celebration of Christ's resurrection. What a wonderful gift Christ gave us by submitting to the cross for our sins. Easter is an exciting time of year, one of my favorite holidays. Just as we see the new life of the earth, we can remember the new life offered to all through Christ.

Devon continues to thrive on her way to toddlerhood! She learns new things daily. The newest achievements are carrying big objects around and giving some very interesting looks.

Alyson is also doing well. She pulls herself up to anything she can reach and stands unsupported for a few minutes at a time. Devon will soon have competition in the walking game! It will be interesting to see what they do once Alyson walks. Happy First Birthday goes to Alyson this month also!

I haven't seen much of Brooklyn but hopefully we'll see more of her this month.

If you don't have a home church to worship at on Easter, please join us at Bethel. We would be pleased to have you!

God Bless, Miss Sue

Toddler Talk

As I write this, I'm watching Kylie, Alex, Bryce and Carson jump like little bunnies (or frogs, I'm not sure). They love to imitate so much!

One thing we could not imitate is the sacrifice Jesus made for us. "Sing praises to the Lord." Psalm 9:11. This will be our verse for the month.

We say good-bye to Aiden and Brandon, we will miss them.

Tyler and Kylie are doing very well with the bathroom. Carson and Bryce are also progressing. Liam is making friends and as a Christian I have learned that when something is taken away (Aiden), God also brings wonderful blessings into your life (Liam). Lucy, Alex and Eric are a real joy. I love them all very much and they all let us know how much they care for all of their teachers.

We will learn about the Easter story, feelings, gardening and Spring. Have a very blessed Easter.

Miss Kathy

Preschool Passages

Wow! The Preschoolers and their families have read a lot of books this month! We have filled up our whole poster with books already and we still have another month to go! Don't forget to take your child out to Pizza Hut for their free pizza this month!

We are almost done with all of the commandments and the Preschoolers can tell you what each one of them is. They are also doing a good job following those commandments which is even more important than just knowing them!

Coming up this month, we will be helping children with cancer by doing a walk-a-thon with some other childcare centers on April 23rd. More information will be coming soon!
